SPANISH SCHOOL

CONVERSA

Conversa – Spanish School

Conversa Language School opened in 1975 and it is considered one of the first language schools for foreigners in Costa Rica. The family business is now run by Andy Kaufmann, son of founder David Kaufmann. However, David Kaufmann is still active every day on campus. The school is located in the hills of Santa Ana, in the heart of the beautiful nature of Costa Rica with a unique view on the Central Valley of San Jose.

The objective of Conversa is to offer students the opportunity to learn Spanish and speak it naturally as elsewhere. Students may find different ways to practice and improve their Spanish every day. Also in the campus restaurant we offer lunches and snacks.

Accommodation

During your linguistic stay in Costa Rica you have the possibility of living with a family in a single room with half tuition. The families live in the town of Santa Ana. The bus will take you to school every day. Santa Ana is a typical small town in which, however, you can find several restaurants – sodas, bars, shops...

Entertainment

Learn Spanish in Santa Ana can be combined perfectly with the recreational program of school. The school has a swimming pool, offers weekly dancing and yoga classes. Moreover, in Santa Ana you would have the opportunity to enjoy the sports facilities of the municipality as Zumba classes, for instance. The school offers you the opportunity to book local trips to tropical forest, beach and more ... In addition, it is easy to go to the vibrant city of San Jose by bus.
